

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, April 23

1999

Earth Day tree planting ceremony Friday

Marshall celebrates Earth Day Friday with a tree planting ceremony from 10-11 a.m. at Bldg. 4650. Speakers include Huntsville Mayor Loretta Spencer and Maj. Gen. Emmitt E. Gibson, commanding general of the U.S. Army Aviation and Missile Command at Redstone. In case of inclement weather, the ceremony will be in the high bay area of Bldg. 4650.

'Beanie Babies' on sale Friday, 10:30 a.m., NASA Exchange

Bring children to work, June 24. Register through 'Inside Marshall' Website

Computer services outage planned Sat.-Sun., Bldg. 4201

A Local Area Network (LAN) outage will affect all Bldg. 4201 LAN services from 7 a.m.-6 p.m. Saturday. Users in 4201 will be unable to access networked applications or devices. Also, due to a computer room reconfiguration in 4201, service to Thiokol Space Shuttle Data Modeling services, ADE Development Environment Servers, NAIS Services and Sun Development Environment Network Services may be disrupted from 7 a.m. Saturday-10 p.m. Sunday.

Happy 1st Birthday to Center Operations Directorate